

STEPHEN FINKEL PHOTOGRAPHY

Kodak six 20 Brownie D

The Kodak six 20 Brownie D Box roll-film camera was released in 1946 and manufactured in the UK. The camera was discontinued in 1957. The camera had a metal winding knob, metal shutter release button, easy to use hinged back with a simple spring catch and two brilliant view-finders.

The lens type was Meniscus f/11, 100mm with portrait lens. Film size 620 and Picture size 2 1/4 X 3 1/4"
The shutter was a single blade.

The original price for this camera was $10.00

